departmental agency for the year 1946-47. This system has been adopted by the Bombay Tanks Act & it is being continued. A temporary establishment of ten bullock keepers on Rs 40 each p.m. and one mukadam on Rs 60 p.m. has been employed therefor. The Dy Com recommends that the said temporary establishment during 1946-47 and to dispense with the work of collecting data in open cultivation with effect from 1-7-47. Necessary provision has been made in the budget of the year for 1946-47.

2. This latter arrangement is permissible under Sec 8 (1) of the Tanks Act 1933 but might be opposed if definite information regarding S(2) supply is not available but will be examined, considered & noted, if opposed.
